Voice mail attached...

63 claims, no fines; all claims stuck down...

They owe me money at this point... and all i asked for was my security deposit and the legal fees unlawfully billed and paid; but just check the voicemail in turn.

Attached, but unfiled as I am unsure how to properly file this attachment, as a formality. To top it off, my dad STILL insists that i find work, so thank you for months of harassment, yelling, and constant scrutiny as exhibited by your servants.

This guy has convinced himself that I have been building a bed for 6 months... Take that camera down, immediately.

In good faith, wouldn't it be an obligation of an attorney to assist a "fee waivers" client to file for ALL filings, or is it objectionable conduct to select which filings to assist with?

Just asking, i have no experience dealing with damages.

Thank you for submitting a comment to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. This auto-reply message is your notification that we have received your comment letter.

The SEC posts comments on the SEC's Internet Website (<http://www.sec.gov/>). Comments are also available for website viewing and printing in the SEC's Public Reference Room, 100 F Street, NE, Washington, DC 20549 on official business days between the hours of 10:00 am and 3:00pm. We reserve the right, but shall have no obligation, to review, to refuse to post or to remove any or all of your submission from www.sec.gov that is deemed to be inappropriate for publication, including, but not limited to, obscene language, personally identifiable information, copyrighted material, and irrelevant content. When multiple comments are submitted with identical or near-identical content, only the first copy of the comment received is posted publicly, along with a running total number of that comment received. We may redact personally identifiable information from submissions, but have no obligation to do so. You should submit only information that you wish to make available publicly. We generally post comments within 2 to 3 business days after we receive them electronically.

Please review our privacy policy at <http://www.sec.gov/privacy.htm>.

You should not use the rule-comments mailbox to submit a tip or complaint (including a whistleblower complaint). If you wish to submit a tip or complaint regarding a potential violation of the federal securities laws, please use our online form at <https://www.sec.gov/complaint/select.shtml>, or mail your information to the SEC Complaint Center at the following address: SEC Complaint Center, 100 F Street NE, Washington, D.C. 20549-0213. You can also send a fax to 703-813-6965.

If you are an investor, check out the "Investor Information" section of our website, at <http://www.sec.gov/investor.shtml>, to find helpful information and tools. If you have a securities-related question, please visit our website at <http://www.sec.gov/answers.shtml> to find fast answers to your questions and solutions to common investment problems. If you are a securities professional needing assistance on technical matters, please check the "SEC Divisions" and "Information For" pages on the top right of our website, www.sec.gov.

We appreciate your taking the time to communicate your thoughts on our proposed rules.

Sincerely,

Office of the Secretary
U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission
